Section 10: Obligations and Monies Explained

AGREEMENT TO GRANT A TENANCY AT SOME FUTURE DATE FOR:

Property:

10.1 Your holding deposit explained:

Thank you for applying to rent a property from one of our landlords. Before your application can be fully considered, you will need to pay to us a holding deposit that will equate to no more than one weeks' rental value for the property you are interested in. This section explains what happens to this holding deposit and the circumstances in which the deposit will / will not be refunded. It is important that you know your legal rights and accordingly you should feel free to seek independent legal advice before signing this or indeed and other document which we may put before you.

Once we have your holding deposit, current legislation stipulates that the necessary paperwork (the "Tenancy Agreement") should be completed within 15 days or such longer period as might be agreed. If both parties agree to it then the appropriate extension will be completed during the application process.

In either event should you decide not to proceed with the tenancy, then your holding deposit will be retained by our firm. By the same token, if you unreasonably delay in responding to any reasonable request made by our firm, and it turns out that you provided us with false or misleading information as part of your tenancy application or if you fail any of the checks which the Landlord is required to under the Immigration Act 2014, then again your holding deposit will not be returned. It will be retained by this firm and your Landlord.

However, if the Landlord decides not to offer you a tenancy for reasons unconnected with the above then your holding deposit will be refunded within 7 days. Should you be offered and you accept a tenancy with our Landlord, then your holding deposit will be credited to the first months' rent due under that tenancy.

Where, for whatever reason, your holding deposit is neither refunded nor credited against any rental liability, you will be provided with written reasons for your holding deposit not being repaid within 7 days.

You will not be asked to pay any fees or charges (for example, an application fee) in connection with your application for tenancy. However, if your application is successful you will be required to pay certain charges that are clearly outlined within the tenancy agreement in line with those detailed within the Tenant Fees Act 2019. In consideration of us processing your tenancy application, you agree to pay those fees to us on request.

Balance of monies (remainder of rent and deposit) to be paid upon or before moving in.

All payments must be in cleared funds. We do not accept credit card payments.

Brookdale Property Management Services Ltd. are registered with PropertyMark's Client Money Protection scheme.
